DAY 1 Friday, April 9, 2027

Bangkok's Royal Legacy Along the Chao Phraya

Following disembarkation at Laem Chabang, travel to Bangkok to discover the grandeur of Thailand’s royal and spiritual heritage. Begin at the magnificent Grand Palace, a dazzling complex of gilded pavilions, ceremonial halls, and exquisite architectural details that has served as the symbolic heart of the Thai Kingdom for generations. A delicious lunch at Sala Rattanakosin showcases authentic Thai flavors while offering spectacular views across the Chao Phraya River toward Wat Arun. The afternoon continues with visits to Wat Pho, home to the colossal Reclining Buddha, and Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn), which ranks among Bangkok’s most iconic landmarks. Your evening is at leisure following check-in at The Peninsula Bangkok.

The Peninsula Bangkok

The five-star Peninsula Bangkok combines the best of Eastern and Western hospitality to provide unmatched service and comfort. All suites and rooms offer sweeping views of the Chao Phraya River, and are thoughtfully decorated with silk furnishings, teak paneling, and plush seating. A daily schedule of complimentary wellness activities includes yoga, aquatic exercise, and singing bowl meditation, while the sumptuous spa features a menu of indulgent massages and facials.

The Peninsula Deluxe Room

With floor-to-ceiling windows offering views across the Chao Phraya River and sparkling Bangkok skyline, The Peninsula's Deluxe Room is a veritable riverside retreat. Highlights include a marble bathroom with double vanities, a spacious closet, and separate seating area.

DAY 2 Saturday, April 10, 2027

Sacred Temples and Thailand's Greatest Wooden Sanctuary

After breakfast, continue your cultural journey with a visit to Wat Benchamabophit (Marble Temple), an architectural masterpiece crafted from Italian marble and celebrated for its harmonious fusion of Thai and European influences. Following a leisurely lunch featuring the vibrant flavors of Thailand’s coastal cuisine, travel south toward Pattaya. Upon arrival, explore the remarkable Sanctuary of Truth, an awe-inspiring wooden monument rising above the Gulf of Thailand. Constructed entirely from intricately carved timber, this extraordinary sanctuary reflects ancient philosophies, spiritual traditions, and artistic mastery through thousands of handcrafted sculptures. This marks the memorable conclusion to your exploration of Thailand's cultural heritage. From here, you will transfer to Laem Chabang port to rejoin your voyage.
