Discover Guayaquil & Arrive in Lima

Following customs formalities at the airport, meet your local guide for a panoramic introduction to Guayaquil, Ecuador's vibrant port city. Drive along Avenida 9 de Octubre before visiting Parque Centenario and the famous Parque Seminario, home to the city's beloved resident iguanas. Continue beside the Guayas River along the lively Malecón 2000, passing the Civic Plaza, Moorish Tower, City Hall, and the Rotonda Monument before exploring the colorful colonial district of Las Peñas on Santa Ana Hill. Enjoy an elegant three-course lunch at City Winery, featuring refined Ecuadorian cuisine, carefully selected local wines, and a tasting of the country's celebrated cacao. Afterwards, transfer to the airport for your evening flight to Lima. Upon arrival, walk directly to the conveniently connected airport hotel for dinner and overnight accommodations.

Imperial Cusco & Sacred Inca Treasures

Following breakfast at the hotel, walk to the airport for your morning flight to Cusco, the former capital of the Inca Empire and one of South America's most remarkable UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Begin exploring at Qorikancha (Temple of the Sun), once the Empire's most sacred sanctuary and now home to the Dominican Convent of Santo Domingo. The magnificent surviving Inca stonework remains among the finest examples of ancient engineering. Before lunch, enjoy a lively performance by local musicians, celebrating Peru's rich cultural traditions. Continue to Plaza de Armas and the magnificent Cusco Cathedral, a masterpiece of Spanish colonial architecture. Later, visit the imposing fortress of Sacsayhuamán, with colossal stone walls that continue to astonish visitors with their remarkable precision. Transfer to the five-star Tambo del Inka, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa for dinner and your overnight accommodation.

Tambo Del Inka, A Luxury Collection Resort & Spa

Nestled along the tranquil Urubamba River in the heart of Peru's Sacred Valley, Tambo del Inka, a Luxury Collection Resort & Spa is an exceptional retreat surrounded by the majestic Andes. Inspired by the ancient tambos that once welcomed travelers en route to Machu Picchu, this elegant resort blends contemporary sophistication with the region's rich cultural heritage. Beautifully appointed accommodations feature private balconies overlooking the mountains or river, while award-winning dining showcases the finest local ingredients. A world-class spa, heated indoor pool, and beautifully landscaped gardens provide a serene sanctuary, creating an unforgettable stay immersed in the timeless beauty of the Sacred Valley.

Tambo Del Inka Deluxe Room

Thoughtfully designed for comfort and relaxation, the 441 sq. ft. (41 m²) Deluxe Room features a plush king-size bed, floor-to-ceiling soundproof windows, and an elegant marble bathroom with separate bathtub and shower. Refined furnishings, modern amenities, and attentive 24-hour service provide a tranquil retreat in the heart of the Sacred Valley.

The Lost City of the Incas

After breakfast, transfer to Río Sagrado Station to board the iconic Hiram Bingham train for one of the world's most spectacular rail journeys. Elegant surroundings, attentive service, and a gourmet brunch add to the experience as you enjoy the scenic ride through the Sacred Valley toward Aguas Calientes. Ascend to the legendary sanctuary of Machu Picchu, the extraordinary royal estate built by Emperor Pachacuti during the 15th century. Hidden high within the Andes and never discovered by the Spanish conquistadors, this UNESCO World Heritage Site remains one of archaeology's greatest treasures. Explore magnificent terraces, ceremonial temples, sacred plazas, and intricate stone structures while learning about the enduring mysteries surrounding this remarkable citadel. Following the guided visit, enjoy a refreshing cocktail overlooking the breathtaking mountain scenery before returning to Aguas Calientes. Dinner is served aboard the Hiram Bingham train during the return journey to Río Sagrado before your transfer to Cusco for your overnight stay.

Monasterio, A Belmond Hotel, Cusco

Welcome to Monasterio, a retreat where opulent design and spiritual energy beckon you in. A sense of peace prevails in this Cusco haven, where soft-toned woodwind instruments serenade you while exploring the hotel's gilded corridors, resplendent with historic artwork. In the main courtyard, gather by the 300-year-old Andean Cedar tree and watch as weavers in traditional dress work skilled fingers over colorful yarn. Converse with fellow travelers as a cup of restorative coca tea or a punchy pisco sour makes its way to you. With stunning Baroque architecture, peerless Peruvian dining, and a prized location, Monasterio proves a perfect base in Cusco..

Monasterio Deluxe Room

Monasterio's Deluxe Rooms are each unique, having once formed part of a 16th-century monastery. Admire the historic architectural details and recline in the spacious sitting area. Kindly note that these rooms do not feature additional oxygenation facilities.

DAY 4 Saturday, January 23, 2027

Andean Traditions & Farewell to Peru

Following breakfast, journey into the Andean highlands to visit the charming Village of Flowers, where Quechua-speaking families continue traditions passed down over for centuries. Meet local farmers and master weavers while discovering ancestral textile techniques, symbolic patterns, and authentic mountain lifestyles. Visits to village homes provide fascinating insight into daily life, local cuisine, and enduring cultural customs that continue to define the Andean communities today. Return to Cusco for lunch at a local restaurant before transferring to the airport for your afternoon flight to Lima. Upon arrival, transfer directly to the port to rejoin your cruise, concluding this unforgettable exploration of Peru's remarkable cultural and archaeological heritage.
