Arrive in Lima, Peru

In Peru's coastal capital, surf, ceviche and pisco sours are only the beginning. Lima's 18th-century haciendas, baroque stonework and colonial architecture are upstaged by the country's pre-Columbian history on display at museums like Pueblo Libre's Larco, while its restaurant scene is so effervescent that the city is widely acknowledged as the culinary capital of Latin America. Arrive and transfer to your elegant hotel. The evening is yours to explore on your own.

DAY 4 Friday, January 22, 2027

Andean Highlands — Living Traditions of the Quechua

Journey into the Andean highlands for an enriching cultural experience at the Village of Flowers, where Quechua-speaking families continue traditions preserved for centuries. Meet local farmers and master weavers while discovering ancestral textile techniques, traditional cooking, and symbolic designs woven into colorful garments. Continue with an authentic agricultural experience, learning ancient farming practices that have sustained these communities since Inca times. A highlight of the day is participation in the sacred Pago a la Pachamama ceremony, a traditional offering to Mother Earth led by a local shaman. Following a scenic picnic lunch, return to Cusco and check into the historic Monasterio, A Belmond Hotel. This evening, enjoy a farewell dinner at a local restaurant before returning to the hotel.

Monasterio, A Belmond Hotel, Cusco

Welcome to Monasterio, a retreat where opulent design and spiritual energy beckon you in. A sense of peace prevails in this Cusco haven, where soft-toned woodwind instruments serenade you while exploring the hotel’s gilded corridors, resplendent with historic artwork. In the main courtyard, gather by the 300-year-old Andean Cedar tree and watch as weavers in traditional dress work skilled fingers over colorful yarn. Converse with fellow travelers as a cup of restorative coca tea or a punchy pisco sour makes its way to you. With stunning Baroque architecture, peerless Peruvian dining, and a prized location, Monasterio proves a perfect base in Cusco..

Monasterio — Deluxe Room

Monasterio's Deluxe Rooms are each unique, having once formed part of a 16th-century monastery. Admire the historic architectural details and recline in the spacious sitting area. Kindly note that these rooms do not feature additional oxygenation facilities.

Lima — Embark Your Ship

Fly to Lima, where you transfer to the pier for embarkation for the beginning of your Crystal voyage.
