From ancient temples and UNESCO-listed engineering marvels to captivating Sichuan opera and world-renowned cuisine, this fascinating journey reveals the heart and soul of Sichuan Province.

Highlights:

- Observe giant pandas in their natural habitat at the Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding.
- Experience the artistry of Sichuan opera, including the famed face-changing performance.
- Explore the UNESCO-listed Dujiangyan Irrigation System, an engineering masterpiece that's more than 2,000 years old.

Arrival in Chengdu and the Flavors of Sichuan

After leaving the ship in Hong Kong, transfer to the airport for a flight to Chengdu, the vibrant capital of Sichuan Province. Upon arrival, transfer to The Ritz-Carlton, Chengdu and enjoy some time settling in. Next, discover Kuanzhai Xiangzi (Wide and Narrow Alleys), a beautifully preserved district where traditional courtyard residences, teahouses, artisan boutiques, and local culture create an atmosphere of old Chengdu. This evening, savor an authentic Sichuan hotpot dinner, one of China's most celebrated culinary traditions. Rich flavors, fresh ingredients, and regional specialties provide a memorable introduction to Chengdu's famous cuisine.
