Encounter the spiritual and cultural treasures of Bangkok in the city's sacred temples, royal landmarks, and delicious local cuisine. From the gleaming Golden Buddha to the grandeur of the Grand Palace, this immersive journey offers an insightful introduction to Thailand's rich heritage and timeless traditions.

Highlights:

- Explore the Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew, Thailand's most revered royal and religious complex.
- Discover Wat Traimit and Wat Pho, home to the iconic Reclining Buddha.
- Enjoy an overnight stay at the elegant Peninsula Bangkok overlooking the Chao Phraya River.

Sacred Icons and Culinary Sophistication

Following disembarkation in Laem Chabang, journey to Bangkok for an exploration of the city's most revered cultural treasures. Begin at Wat Traimit (Temple of the Golden Buddha), home to the world's largest solid gold Buddha statue, an extraordinary symbol of Thai artistry and devotion. Continue to Wat Pho (Temple of the Reclining Buddha), renowned for its magnificent gilded Buddha and status as the birthplace of traditional Thai massage. The cultural journey continues at Wat Benchamabophit (Marble Temple), an architectural masterpiece blending Thai craftsmanship with imported Italian marble. Lunch is served at Horsamut Restaurant, where coastal Thai specialties are enjoyed in a scenic waterfront setting. Later, arrive at The Peninsula Bangkok, where the remainder of the afternoon and evening are at leisure.

The Peninsula Bangkok

The five-star Peninsula Bangkok combines the best of Eastern and Western hospitality to provide unmatched service and comfort. All suites and rooms offer sweeping views of the Chao Phraya River, and are thoughtfully decorated with silk furnishings, teak paneling, and plush seating. A daily schedule of complimentary wellness activities includes yoga, aquatic exercise, and singing bowl meditation, while the sumptuous spa features a menu of indulgent massages and facials.

The Peninsula Deluxe Room

With floor-to-ceiling windows offering views across the Chao Phraya River and sparkling Bangkok skyline, The Peninsula's Deluxe Room is a veritable riverside retreat. Highlights include a marble bathroom with double vanities, a spacious closet, and separate seating area.

Royal Grandeur and Riverside Reflections

After breakfast, depart for Bangkok's most celebrated landmark, the Grand Palace. Constructed in 1782, this magnificent complex served as the royal residence for generations and remains a powerful symbol of Thailand's monarchy and cultural heritage. Within its grounds lies Wat Phra Kaew (Temple of the Emerald Buddha), home to the Kingdom's most sacred Buddha image. Admire glittering spires, ornate halls, intricate murals, and exquisite craftsmanship that reflect centuries of royal patronage. Following the guided visit, enjoy lunch at Sala Rattanakosin, a refined riverside restaurant offering exceptional views across the Chao Phraya River toward Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn). This afternoon, transfer to Laem Chabang Port to rejoin the ship and continue your journey.
