IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Glamor, gastronomy, and great stories, our evening in The Archive Room at The Peninsula will offer a rare and fascinating window on the legendary hotel's heritage and treasures, and a deeper understanding of Hong Kong's history. This is your exclusive chance to become part of The Peninsula's story. You will be escorted from the ship in a Rolls-Royce to this world-famous five-star hotel, one of the best in the world. After a Champagne reception featuring live music, you will be shown around the Archive Room, an exclusive viewing that will reveal 90 years' worth of artefacts and memorabilia from significant events - including the 1997 British handover of Hong Kong to China. Next, you will feast on a four-course menu, with bespoke wine pairings, created by the hotel's Michelin-starred flagship restaurant Gaddi's, a culinary institution since 1953, before your relaxing return trip by Rolls-Royce to the ship.

Please note:

Semi-formal dress code (Men: slacks, shirt, suit jacket or blazer / Women: knee-length dress, two-piece ensemble with blouse or jacket), with comfortable shoes is highly recommended. For a more relaxed option, smart casual attire is also acceptable.

This experience is not suitable for wheelchair users.

According to Hong Kong law, the legal drinking age is 18 years.

Included:
