Valleys, Views & Volcanic Wonders

Prepare for an unforgettable day ahead with a hearty hotel breakfast, then meet your guide for your onward journey to the mountainous town of Hakone, famous for its stunning views of the iconic Mt. Fuji volcano and its rejuvenating hot springs. Firstly, you will fly through the sky in a gondola, taking The Hakone Ropeway for a 30-minute ride above the glorious Owakundani Valley. Lunch at a local restaurant is next, before you climb aboard a scenic cruise ship for a tour of the calm, crystal-clear waters of Lake Ashi, a crater lake famous for its view of the red gate of Hakone-jinja Shrine, standing proud on the lake's shore. These wonderful sights will give you plenty to talk about with fellow guests over a sumptuous welcome dinner this evening at your Hakone hotel.

SATURDAY
APRIL 18,
2026Temples, Markets & Towers

Another exciting day awaits, so fuel yourself with a delicious breakfast before you meet your guide. You'll explore the serene Asakusa Senso-ji Temple before changing pace at the bustling Nakamise Shopping Street, browsing folding fans, summer kimonos and lucky cat figurines. This is the place to sample some local treats such as senbei (rice crackers) and ningyo-yaki (small sponge cakes), but don't eat too much - your next stop is the lively Tsukiji Outer Fish Market. After an informative walking tour, you'll be taken to a sushi lunch spot favored by in-the-know locals. After your fill of nigirizushi, you'll get the chance to cement the wonder of this charming city in your mind (and camera) forever from 1,092 ft atop the Tokyo Tower. The orange and white landmark, completed in 1958, is Asia's answer to the Eiffel Tower. From there, you'll be transferred to the Tokyo Cruise Terminal, ready to embark on your next adventure, this time aboard Crystal Symphony.
